Re: Use of the name RESTORATION
Our Ref.: 159267/1

Dear Mr. Vought:

This firm is counsel to RESTORATION ACTION, a 501(c)(4) Delaware Non-Profit Corporation and RESTORATION PAC, an independent expenditure only political action committee (commonly referred to as a “Super PAC”) registered with the Federal Election Commission. RESTORATION PAC is commonly known to be one of the top-spending Super PACs in the nation in recent election cycles. RESTORATION PAC is a non-partisan political action committee that sponsors political activities advocating for policy changes and/or the election or defeat of candidates and RESTORATION ACTION, is a nonprofit social welfare organization that advocates in favor of conservative policy positions.

As such, RESTORATION ACTION and RESTORATION PAC have developed trademark rights in the name and mark RESTORATION. Those interested in political activities and public affairs have come to understand that the name RESTORATION is strongly associated with RESTORATION PAC and RESTORATION ACTION.

Because of our client’s desire to protect its name and reputation, it filed for and registered both names, RESTORATION PAC and RESTORATION ACTION, as service marks at the United States Patent and Trademark Office. These Registrations, Reg. NO. 5,779,207 RESTORATION PAC and Reg. No. 5,696,980 RESTORATION ACTION are valid and subsisting.

Under the Federal Trademark Statute 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq., and similar state statutes, the owner of a distinctive name, mark, logo or slogan may bar others from using this same or similar name in connection with the same or similar activities. Registration gives the owner additional rights under the Statute. While our client appreciates the activities and philosophy of The Center for American Restoration and American Restoration Action, use of these names are likely to cause confusion in the political and social welfare fields as those interested in political and/or social welfare activities are likely to assume a connection between your new organizations and the long established and well-known RESTORATION PAC and RESTORATION ACTION.

For this reason, we must respectfully request that you cease all use of the names The Center for American Restoration and American Restoration Action. We want to avoid confusion as each entity works to advance its goals.

We look forward to hearing from you within the next ten (10) business days.

Sincerely,

HOLLAND & KNIGHT LLP
